and yet so knowing."

Class Will

We, the great Senior Class of '57, being of sound minds, do hereby make and extend our last will and testament:

I, Myrna Adams, leave almost all of my love for Elvis Presley to the Junior girls.

Jimmy Jackson sadly wills his Junior Fire Department Badge to Roy Joe Bobo.

Jane Harris and Linda King leave their ability to be the best of friends to Bonnie Hall and Martha Wallace.

Annette Layne leaves her sweet personality to Linda Walls.

I, Wayne Browning, leave my ability to go steady with all the beautiful girls to Billy Young. Get up, Bill, "life can be beautiful."

Wanda Kirk leaves to Sue Oxford her height with hopes that she will use it to the best advantage, preferably on the basketball court.

Jerry Neighbors wills his ability to shirk all kinds of labor to Gale Woods.

I, Barbara Haney, leave my old shorthand book to Dolly Dobbs, I hope it helps her - - - it didn't help me.

I, Sam Kirk do will my ability to tell "Bull Stories" to Darwin Hood.

Charlie Ray Cockburn leaves to Donald Sisk his comfortable seat in the English room. It is guranteed to put you to sleep with very little effort on your part.

I, Norma Gilley, leave my ability to yell at football games and down the hall to Mary George Christenberry. Watch out for the teachers.

Leon Wilson wills his quiet ways to Sam Taliaferro.

Gail Burkhalter, Ethel Lester and Mary Lou Baker leave their formula entitled "How to Get Your Man and Hold Him."

Eddie Elam bequeaths to Troy Sessums the pleasure of arguing with Mr. Phillips.

Becky Pomeroy wills all her "copy notes" to Bety Watkins.

I, Jimmy Klein, leave my ability to leave school anytime at my convenience to Bill Cooper. Watch out, here Comes Mr. Hinkle.

Georgia Fry and Margie Ervin leave to Cora Ellen Thompson their ability to bury themselves in study and forget all about boys. Feature that!

James McVoid wills his Economics book to anyone stupid enough to want it.

I, Barbara Chilcutt, leave my place on the warm-up bench to Carolyn Haney. May she keep it as warm as I did.

Hershel Pearson leaves his ability to win dairy awards to Charles Jackson.

Mary Helen Doughty and LaWanda Welch leaves to Blanche Neely all their tips on wooing the men.

David Plumlee leaves his artistic ability toward desk carving to Kenneth Burkhalter and Gerry Williams.

I, Danny Wilkinson, leave my ability to whisper during class to Larry Fox.

I, Wilber Brawley, do will and bequeath my ability to play pool to Leon Maness and Bill Thompson.

Elaine Olsovsky leaves to all the girls in the Junior Class her charming manners and lady-like ways.

I, Foy Jennings, leave to Don Newsom and Ben Don Allison my ability to get along with the teachers and tease the girls.

Kenneth Chadwell wills to Buddy Martin his '39 Ford, seeing as he needs it.

I, Pharis Malone, do bequeath my ways with the women to Bill Henry.

John Dee Raislback generously leaves to Lynn Browning his place on the All-District Football Team.

David Billingsley leaves his ability to keep his billfold full of Springtown girls pictures to Bobby Fretwell and B. L. Chapman.

Class Prophecy

Ten years have passed since last we saw the bright and shining faces of the 1957 Seniors. It seems that everyone of them was at the ex-student banquet this year (1967). We managed to talk to all of them. Their professions are quite surprising. Would you have ever thought that:

Mr. Hinkle is still patrolling the halls, and writing "unexcused" excuses.

Mrs. Glovetsky is playing the piano at her son's wedding.

Elaine Olsovsky is teaching dancing at Arthur Murray's studio.

Barbara Haney and James McVoid are counting noses at the dinner table.

Barbara Chilcutt is private secretary for the Taliaferro household.

Linda King and Jane Harris move around so much we scarcely see them. (You know these air force guys really move.)

Hershel Pearson is working on a new invention. Top secret! We hear it's a space cruiser. Now who do you suppose will be the first to go?

LaWanda Welch is now running the Slenderella Reducing Salon.

Georgia Fry is the fat lady of the circus.

Say, is that Annette Layne we see sitting at Mrs. Hood's English desk?

Wanda Kirk is coaching basketball at Smith University.

Myrna Adams still is hoping for the right one.

Charlie (Elvis) Cockburn is thrilling the teenage crew with his singing.

We saw his honor Wilber Brawley driving down the boulevard in his old "Olds" the other day. The mayor's job must not be paying much this year.

John Dee Railsback is now coaching football at dear old S.H.S.

Ethel Mae Lester is now feature story teller on Mickey Mouse Club.

Carol Brewer is now playing basketball for the Flying Queens.

Margie Ervin is now married to little Jimmy Dickens.

We saw a picture in a magazine of Leon Wilson. What do you suppose he was advertising? Charles Atlas muscle builders.

Becky Pomeroy can be seen on T-V daily for five minutes advertising Lush Red Hair Shampoo.

Danny Wilkinson was just named champion lie teller. It was a close race with Jerry Neighbors.

Mary Helen Doughty is punching holes in doughnuts at the doughnut factory.

Foy Jennings is featured trapeeze artist with Ringling Brothers Circus.

Norma Gilley just won the 1967 Miss Universe contest.

Gail Burkhalter and Mary Lou Baker have just published a book, 'How to Get a Man and Hold Him.'

Eddie Elam is professor of science at Rice Institute.

Kenneth "Muscles" Chadwell is seen wrestling on T-V every Monday evening.

Wayne Browning is now the Frank Sinatra of 1967.

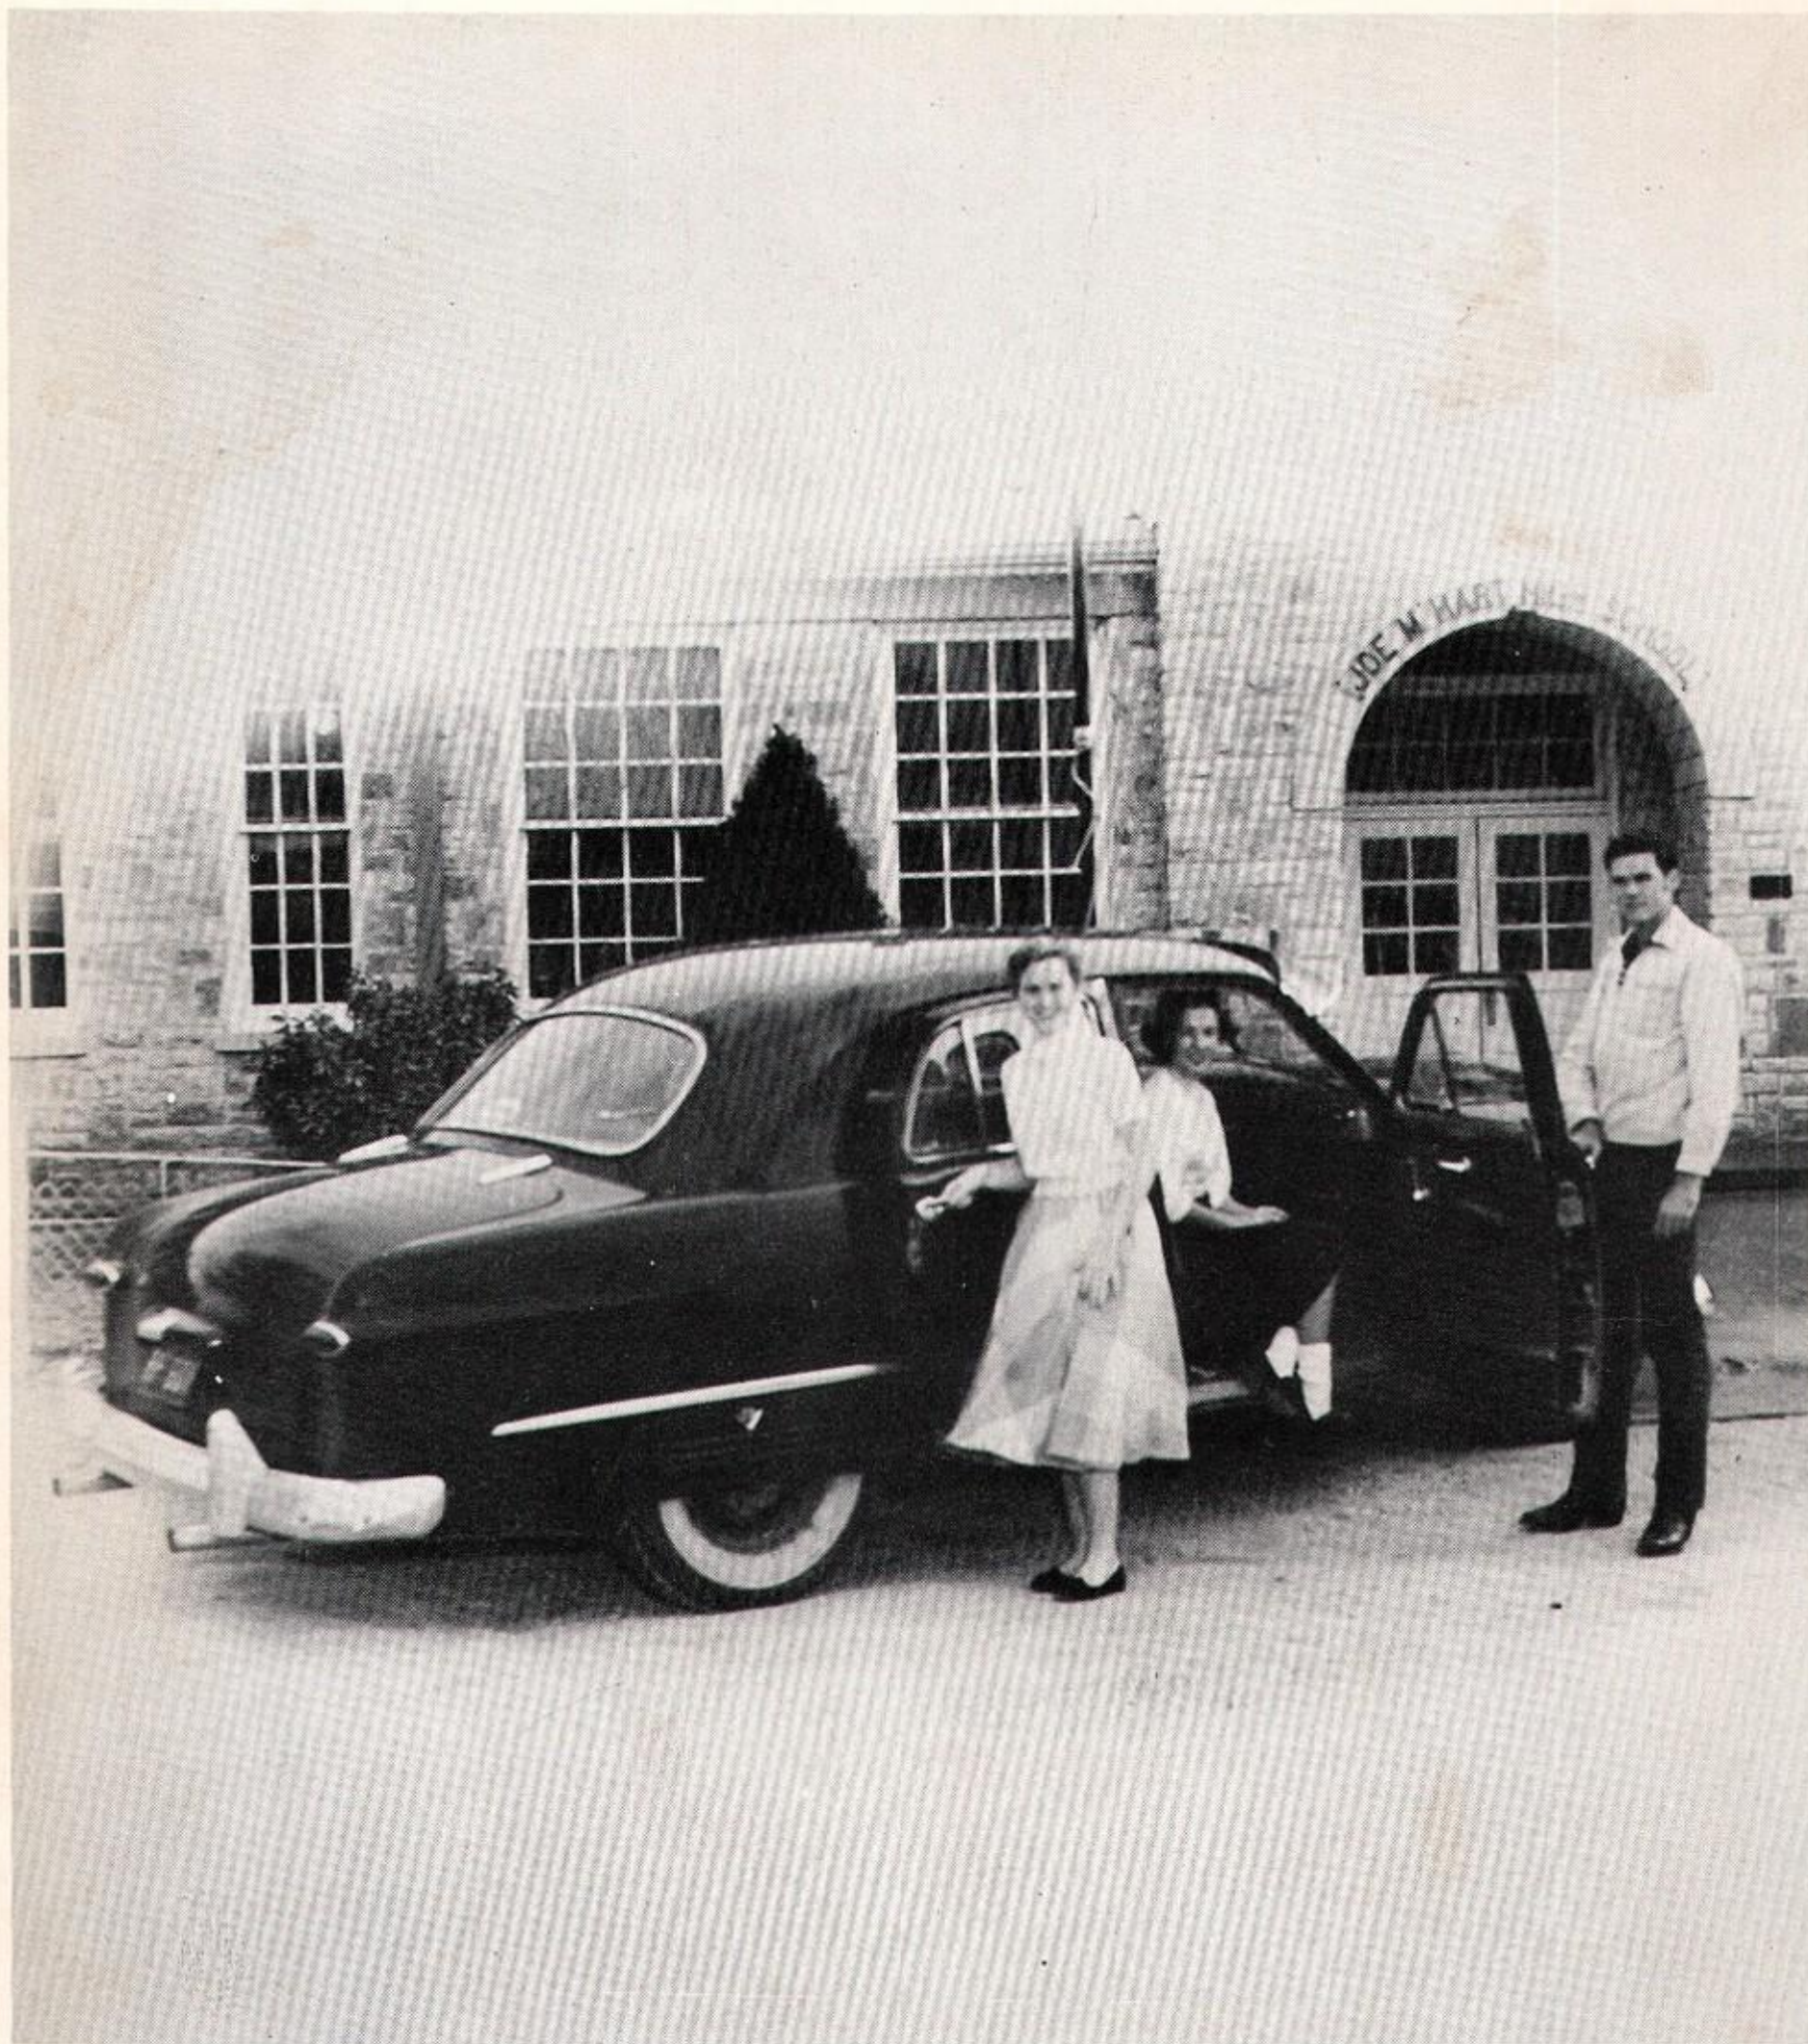

Sam Kirk and Jimmy Klein have a ten dollar bet on who will graduate from dear old S.H.S. first.

Pharis Malone just won the International 500 for 1967.

A new store has just opened in Springtown, the "Tiddy Diddy Diaper Service," owned and operated by David Billingsley.

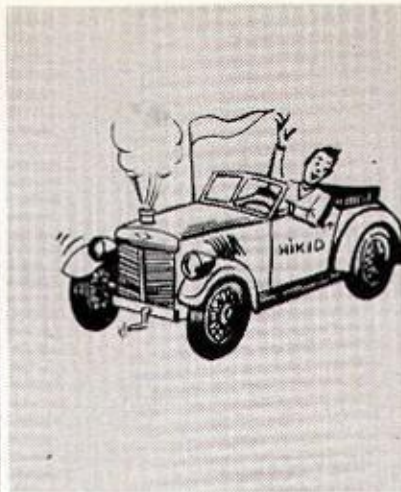

Kenneth Autry has changed his first name to Gene and is "Back in the Saddle Again."

Jimmy Jackson is seen buzzing over the school every few days.

SWEET, SMOOTH AND SASSY

Strictly an inside job!

the Electric DRYER:

Domestic intrigue! You can stop hoping for sunshine and outwit the rain-clouds...and still get your clothes sweet 'n' fluffy 'n' dry!...if you have an electric dryer! Washday can be any day you choose regardless of rain, wind or dust. So, see your appliance dealer... today... and he'll help with an easy way to install and pay for your electric dryer!

Reddy Kilowatt says: The days of "Sunworshipping" are over for the homemaker who launders! For a few cents per washday... I wash and dry her clothes while she looks at TV! LIVE BETTER, ELECTRICALLY!
